BECOME A MEMBER OF THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL OF TILLAMOOK COUNTY

What is the Economic Development Council?

The Economic Development Council of Tillamook County is a partnership of dues-paying private businesses and public agencies throughout the county.

We bring together economic interest groups to facilitate economic development and improve the county's economy. Our goals are to maintain the County's natural resource amenities and improve the standard of living through family wage jobs.

Our staff can help you:

- Access local, State, and Federal resources
- Secure financing
- Assist in business startup, expansion, and retention
- Assist with grant/loan applications and forms
- Access and understand tax incentives that may be available to your business

We work closely with:

- Small Business Development Center (Biz Center)
- Tillamook Bay Community College
- Northwest Oregon Economic Alliance
- Oregon Economic and Community Development Department
- MTC Works
- Other state and federal agencies
- Local businesses and schools

YES! I want to help increase the standard of living in Tillamook County through economic development efforts.
